Golf

Brookwater Golf Club has again confirmed its position as Queensland's premier golf course, ranking number one in the state following the release of Golf Australia magazine's best 50 courses.

For the fifth time running, the Greg Norman-designed course has ranked Queensland's best in the biannual rankings, securing a place in the top 30 courses in Australia.

With an address on Tournament Drive, it's obvious before you even swing a club that Brookwater's magnificent golf course is up amongst Australia's best.

This spectacular Greg Norman-designed masterpiece presents itself as a feast for the eyes and the ultimate test of golf.

The centrepiece of the community, Brookwater is the first championship calibre golf course to be built in the Brisbane environs in nearly 30 years. The ambitious design weaves up and down rolling terrain encompassing two nine-hole loops and an overall distance of 6,505 metres.

Its varied terrain, strategic design and landscaping makes it a course of outstanding character and the perfect environment for you to enjoy a day of premium golf.
